ASIS Orange County is committed to the professional development of the security practitioner. Education, mentoring and professional partnerships are what makes ASIS International and its Regions and Chapters the premier security association in the world. Much of local chapter support depends on our generous sponsors. Your board is looking for a few qualified professional and interested sponsors for ASIS Orange County to assist throughout the year or even for a single special event. If you think you are qualified, use the below link or contact us by email at:
